PETITIONING THE COURT

☒ Other-To incorporate into the previously filed petition, filed on May 17, 2023.

The probation officer believes that the person under supervision has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number 1

Special Condition #22: The defendant shall provide U.S. Probation with accurate information about his entire computer system (hardware/software) and other electronic communication or data storage devices or media to include all password(s) and username(s) used and the name of the internet service provider(s). The defendant shall also abide by the then-current Computer Restrictions and Monitoring Program approved by the Court.

Special Condition #23: Defendant is permitted to possess and/or use a computer and is allowed to access the internet. However, the defendant is not permitted to use a computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices, including a cell phone, to engage in financial transactions in any single mount in excess of $500 (or cumulatively within any 7-day period in excess of $1000 without approval of the probation office).

Nature of Noncompliance

Mr. Banks secured a mortgage through United Wholesale Mortgage in the amount of $159,080 on January 13, 2023. Mr. Banks also secured a personal loan from Lendmark Financial in the amount of $3,503 on November 4, 2022. These transactions were not disclosed to his assigned probation officer and the financial transactions were completed via electronic devices.

Violation Number 2

Special Condition #25 Defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without prior written approval of the probation officer.

Nature of Noncompliance

Mr. Banks special conditions imposed on May 1, 2023, included him to have no access to new credit. According to an Equifax Credit Report reviewed on May 22, 2023, the defendant secured a revolving credit through Merrick Bank in the amount of $1000 on May 12, 2023.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The Supervised Release should be revoked as he continues to engage in criminal conduct while pending state charges. There are no set of conditions that can prevent the defendant from engaging in criminal activity. It should be noted that the defendant reports he is unemployed and living in a storage unit.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
